

PRIVACY POLICY – Draft as at October 2011

This document describes CAMDEN ‘TIGERS’ SOCCER CLUB (hereafter CSC or ‘the club’) policy regarding the way it collects, uses, secures and discloses personal information.

Collecting Information

The information we collect and store during the normal operations of the club is used for registration and communication purposes only, and to meet the identification requirements of the governing associations under which we operate. We do not store personally identifiable information for distribution to any third party but may pass on offers or communications from related third parties to you.

How We Use Your Information

We may use any personal information collected only for the purpose it is intended. The type of information that we collect will include your name, email address, contact phone number and role within the club, as submitted by yourself or suitably authorised representatives. This information may be utilised for further contact and displayed on our website to assist in the effective and efficient operation of the club, but we will provide you with the opportunity to decline such communications and/or display.

Information may also be displayed on the club website to promote positive achievements or upcoming events. This may include photographs taken at sporting events or as part of registration (and in accordance with the club ‘Images of Children’ policy).

Security

Our goal is to protect the personal information we collect. Personal information will be managed confidentially and securely and destroyed appropriately when no longer required. We will monitor and implement appropriate technical advances or management processes, so as to safeguard personal information. Information will be stored electronically on personal computers and maybe transmitted via club and / or personal e-mail accounts. Printed copies of information may be produced and stored at the club house or contact purposes.
